REDS 750ML

CAMBRIA PINOT NOIR
California. This is an excellent Pinot Noir that has been delivering "The Goods" for many a year. Very high quality fruit is obviously used to make this medium-bodied, dry, silky red. The classic flavors of cherry and spice can be found with a little toasted oak. A well put together Pinot.

YANGARRA SHIRAZ
Australia. What we have here is a really good Aussie Shiraz. Fruit, depth, harmony and balance. The grapes for this delicious Shiraz come from the McLaren Vale area. This area is a little cooler than other areas, so the grapes ripen slower and more evenly. That's where the balance and harmony come in. The old Shiraz vines that produce the fruit is where the depth and luscious fruit flavors come from. This is really a great job here from the Yangarra Winery. Enjoy this full-bodied dry red with steaks, roasts, ribs and of course lamb.

PAXIS
Portugal. Here is a great dollar value juicy red blend. Portugal is the land of value in my opinion. So many great wines are coming out of there at such low price points. Paxis is no exception. If you are a fan of red blend wines, you will love this. Ripe, rich and full bodied. Loaded with amazing fruit and so easy to drink just by itself. Great wine for a get together with family and friends.

PAVILLON DE CHAVANNES COTE DE BROUILLY AMBASSADES
France. Ahhhh. Another beauty from the Beaujolais region. This is not your average Beaujolais here, my friends. No, no. This is from Cote De Brouilly which has been granted Cru status. Quite simply: one of the best areas (and smallest of the Crus) in Beaujolais. Also this is their best wine that they make. Cuvée e Des Ambassades is from only their finest and oldest parcels and is served in every French Embassy. Yes it is that good. Made from 100% Gamay grapes, this medium bodied dry red is great with pork & chicken and can be served slightly chilled.

TENUTA DI ARCEO CHIANTI CLASSICO
Italy. I just recently tasted this wine and was struck with how well made it was and how reasonably priced as well. It is a classic Chianti Classico, as in bright cherry color with a fragrant nose with balanced fruit, acidity and tannins - not the oakly taste that is trendy today. Remember Classico. It's all about terrior and minimal intervention. A blend of 85% Sangiovese and 15% Merlot. A solid medium-bodied dry red with great structure and finesse.

CLOS DE LOS SIETE

Argentina. Sourced from seven different vineyards near the Andes Mountains, this full-bodied, dense, dark colored, dry red is the brainchild of famed French winemaker Michel Rolland. It is a blend of Malbec, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. As stated, it is a big wine, but not out of balance. Enjoy this with all red meats, full flavored dishes and Neil Patrick Harris.

MOSSBACK CABERNET SAUVIGNON
California. Wow. Check out this impeccably made tasty little morsel from the Chalk Hill Appellation. This is a very impressive wine to say the least. It is a full-bodied dry red that is rich, dense and multi-layered with ripe dark fruits. It drinks exceptionally well the moment it is poured, but gets even better as it evolves in your glass. A real pleasure to drink.

VIÑO SAN ESTEBAN MALBEC
France. Check out the price on this well made French treat. Bursting with fruit, this full-bodied, well rounded dry red is richly textured and easy drinking. It's a real crowd pleasing super sipper. As Charlie Sheen would say: Winner!

TRIMBACH RIESLING
France. From one of the greatest wine making families in the world, comes this beautiful medium-bodied dry white. Rieslings are usually thought of as sweet, but this is vinified with no residual sugar left. You still get all that great Riesling fruit, but the wine finishes dry. Good match with seafood, chicken, pork and duck.

LES ANGES SAUVIGNON BLANC
France. The Loire area of France is such a wonderful place to grow Sauvignon Blanc. It's famous for Sancerre, but there are so many other Sauv Blancs that deliver the goods without spending a lot; Les Anges is one of them. This is a traditional Sauv Blanc. No oak. Good fruit. Good acidity and minerality as well. A touch of citrus flavors can be found here but not as much as a New Zealand style. Delicious wine. Super price point. What more can you ask for!

CORTE DELLA TORRE PINOT GRIGIO

Italy. Check out this Pinot Grigio delight from the Veneto area of Italy. It is a real well crafted, richly textured (as far as Pinot Grigios go) dry white that tastes more expensive than it is. Medium bodied and very flavorful with a nice long finish (aftertaste). Great as an aperitif or with salads, fish, chicken, etc.

H&M HOFER GRÜNER VELTLINER (LTR SIZE)
Austria. Grüners are hot these days and the reasons are quite simple; They deliver great drinking wines without a hefty price. H&M Hofer is a perfect example. Easy drinking, great fruit, and vibrant. These attributes make for a very versatile wine. Enjoy this medium bodied non-oaked dry white by itself or with salads, seafood, chicken, pork, etc.

MOSELLAND LIGHTHOUSE RIESLING

Germany. The packaging is awesome and so is the wine. You have to see it to really appreciate it, but when you look through the front of the bottle you can see a lighthouse on the back. Perfect for us Long Islanders! It is an off-dry, medium-bodied, easy drinking white that is great with fruit platters, salads, seafood and poultry.

PAZO DE SAN MAURO ALBARINO

Spain. Hailing from the Rais Baixas Region of Spain, this dry white sees no oak aging. It's a very aromatic wine with great fruit on the palate along with balanced natural acidity to keep it fresh and lively. Medium bodied with good minerality as well. The Albarino grape really shines from this area and really shows in this classy bottle of wine.
