REDS 750ML

CHAPOUTIER BILA-HAUT COTES DU ROUSSILLON VILLAGES

France. From famed Rhone winemaker Michel Chapoutier comes this most agreeable red from the Cotes Du Roussillon area in the Languedoc. This baby is jam packed with stunning fruit, soft tannins and mild acidity. All these attributes make for a great modestly priced wine. It is hard to find any faults with this wine. It is that good. This deep full bodied dry red is a blend of Syrah, Grenache and Carignan. Enjoy it with anything roasted or grilled.

CHATEAU PARAZA MINERVOIS

France. Minervois is an area in the Languedoc Region of Southern France. It is known for producing red wines that are very good quality at very affordable prices. That is exactly what Chateau de Paraza is. It is a full-bodied dry red that is made from a blend of Carignan, Grenache, Mourvedre, and Syrah. Nice fruit, not tannic, medium acidity. Put it all together and you get a real pleasant bottle of wine.

MARTIN CÓDAX ALBARIÑO

Spain. Spain's noble white grape Albariño shows best when it is from the Rais Baixas Region. This is a medium bodied dry white that doesn't receive any oak aging. Because of this you get a more vibrant, less heavy wine. There's not only good minerality, but plenty of fruit as well. Great with seafood. Also chicken and pork.

SANTA EMA RESERVE MERLOT

Chile. Merlot the way it should be. Full, rich, ripe and smooth! This is not your average Merlot. This dry red has all the attributes of a more expensive Merlot, but without the big price tag. Nice deep color. Excellent fruit flavors. Long smooth finish. No bitter aftertaste. Great with food and great by itself.

JAM JAR SWEET SHIRAZ

South Africa. Here is a wine that fills a category for wine drinkers seeking a quality red with a sweeter flavor profile. It is made from 100% Shiraz grapes and crafted in a semi-sweet style for those who find red wines to be too bitter and harsh. This full-bodied jam packed wine can be served slightly chilled as well.

LA FORCINE SAUVIGNON BLANC

France. Sourcing most of its fruit from the Loire Valley of France, this fairly full-bodied dry white sees no oak during fermentation. It is all done in stainless steel. This keeps the wine bright and lively. It has all the textbook minerality and citrus flavor that you find in good Sauvignon Blancs but it also has a nice round slightly rich mouthfeel which I find appealing. Pair this with seafood, pork and chicken as well.

HAYES VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON

California. I was pleasantly surprised when I first tasted this wine. I didn't know the price on it and when I tasted it I thought it was going to cost much more. What really impressed me about it was the copious amount of quality Cabernet fruit, and the smooth soft tannins. The acidity level is low so you get this real round mouthfeel to the wine. Makes for a very enjoyable bottle. Enjoy this full-bodied dry red with friends and food.

MAESTRO DEL POMIDORO

Italy. Now here is just a fun everyday wine that really delivers. Even the label is fun (you have to see it). This easy to consume medium-bodied dry red is made from the classic Sangiovese grape (100%). Great with pizza, pasta and burgers. But as the Maestro says, "Groovy with grilled sausage!"

CHATEAU MONTFORT VOUVRAY

France. This is a very easy drinking, off-dry white that matches up great with chicken, fish and spicy food. The grape variety in the wine is Chenin Blanc. You'll find a lot of fruit, but also acidity to keep it balanced and refreshing. Hooray for Vouvray.

CLOS DE LOS SIETE

Argentina. Sourced from seven different vineyards near the Andes Mountains, this full-bodied, dense, dark colored, dry red is the brainchild of famed French winemaker Michel Rolland. It is a blend of Malbec, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. As stated, it is a big wine, but not out of balance. Enjoy this with all red meats, full flavored dishes and Neil Patrick Harris.

JACQUES CHARLET MACON VILLAGES LA CROCHETTE

France. Here's a real beauty and priced-right dry white from the southern part of Burgundy. This is a real top notch high quality Macon-Villages. Made from 100% Chardonnay grapes and drinking oh so fine right now. Wonderful textures and mouthfeel. It is full-bodied but not oaky. Just good fruit, minerality and easy drinking. Great with seafood, salads, roast chicken, etc.

Italy. Fun and delicious is how I can best describe this medium-bodied fruit forward dry red. It is very smooth with soft tannins and light acidity. A very well balanced wine from start to finish. South Africa. It's the everyday great dollar value Chardonnay you've been looking for. More citrus flavors are found here than tropical fruit flavors. Has a kiss of vanilla from a little oak aging and a smooth rich finish. Spend a little. Get a lot!
