REDS 750ML

CHAPOUTIER BILA-HAUT COTES DU ROUSSILLON VILLAGES

France. From famed Rhone winemaker Michel Chapoutier comes this most agreeable red from the Cotes Du Roussillon area in the Languedoc. This baby is jam packed with stunning fruit, soft tannins and mild acidity. All these attributes make for a great modestly priced wine. It is hard to find any faults with this wine. It is that good. This deep full bodied dry red is a blend of Syrah, Grenache and Carignan. Enjoy it with anything roasted or grilled.

HAYES VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON

California. I was pleasantly surprised when I first tasted this wine. I didn't know the price on it and when I tasted it I thought it was going to cost much more. What really impressed me about it was the copious amount of quality Cabernet fruit, and the smooth soft tannins. The acidity level is low so you get this real round mouthfeel to the wine. Makes for a very enjoyable bottle. Enjoy this full-bodied dry red with friends and food.

CHATEAU LA CARDONNE 2009

France. What a fantastic Bordeaux we have here. I was super impressed when I tasted this wine. So impressed that I tried it again and again and again! The quality of fruit here is just fantastic. 2009 was a great vintage and really shows in this Red Cru Bourgeois Wine. It is a blend of Merlot (50%) Cabernet Sauvignon, (45%) and Cabernet Franc (5%). It is, quite frankly, a stunner. So balanced yet so easy to drink. A wine that is drinking wonderfully now and should continue to for many years. Enjoy this fairly rich, full-bodied dry red with all roasted meats.

GRAN DUCA PINOT NOIR

Italy. Fun and delicious is how I can best describe this medium-bodied fruit forward dry red. It is very smooth with soft tannins and light acidity. A very well balanced wine from start to finish. Put all these things together and you have a quality product at a quality price. A very versatile wine. Pair it up with lots of different things.

TERRAZAS RESERVA MALBEC

Argentina. If you like the regular Terrazas Malbec you are going to love this. The difference between the two is that the Reserva has more of everything. Bigger body. Richer fruit. More oak aging. Longer finish. Substantial, yes, but equally balanced. Match it up with full flavored dishes. Beef, pork, etc.

TENUTA DI ARCENO CHIANTI CLASSICO

Italy. I just recently tasted this wine and was struck with how well made it was and how reasonably priced as well. It is a classic Chianti Classico, as in bright cherry color with a fragrant nose with balanced fruit, acidity and tannins-not the oaky style that is trendy today. Remember Classic. It's all about terrior and minimal intervention. A blend of 85% Sangiovese and 15% Merlot. A solid medium-bodied dry red with great structure and finesse.

PAVILLON DE CHAVANNES COTE DE BROUILLY AMBASSADES

France. Ahhhh. Another beauty from the Beaujolais region. This is not your average Beaujolais here, my friends. No, no. This is from Cote De Brouilly which has been granted Cru status. Quite simply; one of the best areas (and smallest of the Crus) in Beaujolais. Also this is their best wine that they make. Cuvée e Des Ambassadees is from only their finest and oldest parcels and is served in every French Embassy. Yes it is that good. Made from 100% Gamay grapes, this medium bodied dry red is great with pork & chicken and can be served slightly chilled.

CLOS DE LOS SIETE

Argentina. Sourced from seven different vineyards near the Andes Mountains, this full-bodied, dense, dark colored, dry red is the brainchild of famed French winemaker Michel Rolland. It is a blend of Malbec, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. As stated, it is a big wine, but not out of balance. Enjoy this with all red meats, full flavored dishes and Neil Patrick Harris.

MARTIN CÓDAX ALBARIÑO

Spain. Spain's noble white grape Albariño shows best when it is from the Rais Baixas Region. This is a medium bodied dry white that doesn't receive any oak aging. Because of this you get a more vibrant, less heavy wine. There's not only good minerality, but plenty of fruit as well. Great with seafood. Also chicken and pork.

MURPHY-GOODE SAUVIGNON BLANC

California. Here's a nice richly textured dry white. Fairly full-bodied with the classic Sauvignon Blanc citrus flavors and aromas. A nice round and smooth satisfying sipper that will match up well with shrimp, chicken and pork dishes. Also great by itself.

MOSELLAND LIGHTHOUSE RIESLING

Germany. The packaging is awesome and so is the wine. You have to see it to really appreciate it, but when you look through the front of the bottle you can see a lighthouse on the back. Perfect for us Long Islanders! It is an off-dry, medium-bodied, easy drinking white that is great with fruit platters, salads, seafood and poultry.

CAMBRIA BENCHBREAK CHARDONNAY

California. Hailing from Santa Maria Valley in the northern part of Santa Barbara, which is fantastic for growing Chardonnay. Full-bodied and dry with a fairly rich mouthfeel. The wine is oak aged which imparts a little hint of vanilla. Have it with lobster, chicken and salmon.

H&M HOFER GRÜNER VELTLINER (LTR SIZE)

Austria. Grüners are hot these days and the reasons are quite simple; They deliver great drinking wines without a hefty price. H&M Hofer is a perfect example. Easy drinking, great fruit, and vibrant. These attributes make for a very versatile wine. Enjoy this medium bodied non-oaked dry white by itself or with salads, seafood, chicken, pork, etc.

DOMAINE DES BANQUETTES COTES DU RHONE BLANC

France. So often when we hear the name Cotes Du Rhone we think of the great red wines. But did you know they make great white wines from here as well? Maybe not so popular over here in the states but over in France it is extremely popular due to its great food pairing, quality and dollar value. This full-bodied dry white sees no new oak. It's all about the fruit and mouthfeel here. A wine that should be served chilled but not ice cold. Too cold and you lose the beautiful mouthfeel and flavors. A blend of Grenache Blanc, Roussanne and Clairette Blanc.

LA FORCINE SAUVIGNON BLANC

France. Sourcing most of its fruit from the Loire Valley of France, this fairly full-bodied dry white sees no oak during fermentation. It is all done in stainless steel. This keeps the wine bright and lively. It has all the textbook minerality and citrus flavor that you find in good Sauvignon Blancs but it also has a nice round slightly rich mouthfeel which I find appealing. Pair this with seafood, pork and chicken as well.
