REDS 750ML
BODEGAS MACAYA ALMARA FINCA LINTE
Spain. Here's a beauty that I bring in exclusively for the shoppe. Comes from the Navarra Region and is made from 100% Tempranillo Grapes. It is a medium-bodied dry red that is very soft and quite easy to consume. Full of flavor and drinking sooo great right now. This juicy wine is great with all meats and pasta too. A solid dollar value.

SANTA EMA RESERVE MERLOT
Chile. Merlot the way it should be. Full, rich, ripe and smooth! This is not your average Merlot. This dry red has all the attributes of a more expensive Merlot, but without the big price tag. Nice deep color. Excellent fruit flavors. Long smooth finish. No bitter after taste. Great with food and great by itself.

YANGARRA SHIRAZ
Australia. What we have here is a really good Aussie Shiraz. Fruit, depth, harmony and balance. The grapes for this delicious Shiraz come from the McLaren Vale area. This area is a little cooler than other areas, so the grapes ripen slower and more evenly. That's where the balance and harmony come in. The old Shiraz vines that produce the fruit is where the depth and luscious fruit flavors come from. This is really a great job here from the Yangarra Winery. Enjoy this full-bodied dry red with steaks, roasts, ribs and of course lamb.

WYATT CABERNET SAUVIGNON
California. By far, one of the best bangs for your buck California Cabs that you can buy. In my opinion, this wine over-delivers. Ripe, round, juicy, smooth, balanced and seductive. That's right, seductive. It will seduce you out of your money and leave you drooling on the floor for another bottle. You have been warned.

CAPARZO SANGIOVESE
Italy. Superb dollar value Tuscan Red right here. Once you try this I believe it will be a wine you will reach for time and time again. It is a medium-bodied dry red. Fresh, lively and not an oakly monster. Just good honest Sangiovese fruit coming from a great producer. Sometimes the simplest things turn out to be the best. Have it with pasta of course, but burgers, pizza, and roasted meats of all kinds as well. Except of course Piping Plover.

TERRE DEI SANTI BARBERA D'ASTI
Italy. I am proud to sell the wines of Terre Dei Santi in my shoppe. I feel that the wines are so well made and really deliver for their price points. This Barbera is no exception. It is exactly what it should be; a smooth easy-drinking fresh dry red that is all about enjoyment now. Make no mistake here. This is not some weak insipid acid driven plonk that some Barbaras can be. This is a fairly full-bodied wine with wonderful fruit (cherries) and balance. Enjoy this with roast chicken, pork and of course pasta dishes. This Barbera will not disappoint.

BARBET CHATEAU DE FLEURIE
France. It is difficult for me to convey my thoughts in such a small paragraph, but I will start by saying this: If you are not drinking Beaujolais wine (like this) you are missing out on great drinking wines! This Cru Beaujolais is from the area (town) of Fleurie. This is not the average Beaujolais that we all know. To get the higher Cru status, vineyards must adhere to stricter laws; lower yields, hand picked grapes and location; as in better soil and exposure to the sun, etc. All these things combined are what make the Cru wines stand out. Frankly put: Only the finest go in. This 100% Gamay grape wine is a medium-bodied dry red with soft tannins, succulent fruit and just sheer drinking bliss. Have it with all white meat dishes.

TERRAZAS MALBEC
Argentina. What's hot these days? Malbec baby and this one's a dandy. The grapes for this wine are grown at a high altitude, which makes for a more balanced and structured wine because the cool nights keep the fruit from becoming overripe. This full-bodied dry red is drinking great. It is nice and mellow with plenty of flavor. Great with pork, chicken, red meats and with Bill Clinton too.

WHITES 750ML
TRIMBACH PINOT BLANC
France. Here's a nice little change from Pinot Grigio or any other dry white for that matter. The grape variety, Pinot Blanc, produces a wine that is medium-bodied. As with all Trimbach wines, no oak is used. It's all about the soil and the grape (Terrior) not about manipulation in the cellars. As their sign states in their tasting room: "Say no to oak, let the fruit shine through."

GRAN DUCA PINOT GRIGIO
Italy. Here is that everyday, delightful, charming Pinot Grigio that you have been looking for. Just real honest easy-drinking Pinot Grigio that is quite affordable and very good. Chill it. Drink it. Relax with it. Great by itself or with salads, seafood, chicken.

MURPHY-GOODE FUMÉ BLANC
California. Here's a nice richly textured dry white. Fairly full-bodied with the classic Sauvignon Blanc citrus flavors and aromas. A nice round and smooth satisfying sipper that will match up well with shrimp, chicken and pork dishes. Also great by itself.

CASAL GARCIA VINHO VERDE
Portugal. Literally meaning "Green Wine," this semi-dry wine is perfect for watching the submarine races. No, the wine isn't green, but the name refers to the slightly unripe grapes that are used. This gives the wine a lighter body, less alcohol, and refreshing acidity. Great with seafood or just by itself.

THEVENET & FILS SAINT-VERAN L'ERMITAGE SAINT CLAUDE
France. I think you will be hard pressed to find a better Saint-Veran at this price point. This wine is absolutely gorgeous. Saint-Veran is a town right next to Pouilly-Fuisse. Often overshadowed by the more famous Pouilly-Fuisse wines, Saint-Veran wines like this one in particular give Pouilly's run for their money. It's 100% Chardonnay and is full bodied with a fairly dense rich mouthfeel. The vines in this vineyard are 70 years old on average. Incredible. Such high pedigree for so few dollars.

MOSELLAND LIGHTHOUSE RIESLING
Germany. The packaging is awesome and so is the wine. You have to see it to really appreciate it, but when you look through the front of the bottle you can see a lighthouse on the back. Perfect for our Long Islanders! It is an off-dry, medium-bodied, easy drinking white that is great with fruit platters, salads, seafood and poultry.

CAPE INDABA CHARDONNAY
South Africa. It's the everyday great dollar value Chardonnay you've been looking for. More citrus flavors are found here than tropical fruit flavors. Has a kiss of vanilla from a little oak aging and a smooth rich finish. Spend a little. Get a lot!
