REDS 750ML

YANGARRA SHIRAZ

Australia. What we have here is a really good Aussie Shiraz. Fruit, depth, harmony and balance. The grapes for this delicious Shiraz come from the McLaren Vale area. This area is a little cooler than other areas, so the grapes ripen slower and more evenly. That's where the balance and harmony come in. The old Shiraz vines that produce the fruit is where the depth and luscious fruit flavors come from. This is really a great job here from the Yangarra Winery. Enjoy this full-bodied dry red with steaks, roasts, ribs and of course lamb.

PAXIS

Portugal. Here is a great dollar value juicy red blend. Portugal is the land of value in my opinion. So many great wines are coming out of there at such low price points. Paxis is no exception. If you are a fan of red blend wines, you will love this. Ripe, rich and full bodied. Loaded with amazing fruit and so easy to drink just by itself. Great wine for a get together with family and friends.

BARBET CHATEAU DE FLEURIE

France. It is difficult for me to convey my thoughts in such a small paragraph, but I will start by saying this: If you are not drinking Beaujolais wine (like this) you are missing out on great drinking wines! This Cru Beaujolais is from the area (town) of Fleurie. This is not the average Beaujolais that we all know. To get the higher Cru status, vineyards must adhere to stricter laws; lower yields, hand picked grapes and location; as in better soil and exposure to the sun, etc. All these things combined are what make the Cru wines stand out. Frankly put: Only the finest go in. This 100% Gamay grape wine is a medium-bodied dry red with soft tannins, succulent fruit and just sheer drinking bliss. Have it with all white meat dishes.

TERRAZAS RESERVA MALBEC

Argentina. If you like the regular Terrazas Malbec you are going to love this. The difference between the two is that the Reserva has more of everything. Bigger body. Richer fruit. More oak aging. Longer finish. Substantial, yes, but equally balanced. Match it up with full flavored dishes. Beef, pork, etc.

PRINCIPI DI BUTERA NERO
D'AVOLA

Italy. This classic grape from Sicilia really shows in this full-bodied dry red. It has a deep dark color and fruit tones to match. This Southern Italian staple is well rounded and smooth because of the low acidity and mild tannins. Enjoy it with things off the grill and roasts.

SANTA EMA RESERVE
MERLOT

Chile. Merlot the way it should be. Full, rich, ripe and smooth! This is not your average Merlot. This dry red has all the attributes of a more expensive Merlot, but without the big price tag. Nice deep color. Excellent fruit flavors. Long smooth finish. No bitter aftertaste. Great with food and great by itself.

MATCHBOOK CABERNET SAUVIGNON

California. A staff favorite here at the shoppe. Why? Because it is so good and reasonably priced! It's a full-bodied juicy dry red that is very smooth and flavorful. Made from almost all Cabernet Sauvignon but there is a splash of Syrah added to fatten it up a bit. This Cabernet delivers the goods, plain and simple. You get more than what you pay for. It's got tiger blood running through its veins!

MAESTRO DEL POMIDORO

Italy. Now here is just a fun everyday wine that really delivers. Even the label is fun (you have to see it). This easy to consume medium-bodied dry red is made from the classic Sangiovese grape (100%). Great with pizza, pasta and burgers. But as the Maestro says, "Groovy with grilled sausage!"

TRIMBACH RIESLING

France. From one of the greatest wine making families in the world, comes this beautiful medium-bodied dry white. Rieslings are usually thought of as sweet, but this is vinified with no residual sugar left. You still get all that great Riesling fruit, but the wine finishes dry. Good match with seafood, chicken, pork and duck.

LES ANGES SAUVIGNON BLANC

France. The Loire area of France is such a wonderful place to grow Sauvignon Blanc. It's famous for Sancerre, but there are so many other Sauv Blancs that deliver the goods without spending a lot; Les Anges is one of them. This is a traditional Sauv Blanc. No oak. Good fruit. Good acidity and minerality as well. A touch of citrus flavors can be found here but not as much as a New Zealand style. Delicious wine. Super price point. What more can you ask for!

CAMBRIA CHARDONNAY

California. Hailing from Santa Maria Valley in the northern part of Santa Barbara, which is fantastic for growing Chardonnay. Full-bodied and dry with a fairly rich mouthfeel. The wine is oak aged which imparts a little hint of vanilla. Have it with lobster, chicken and salmon.

PRINCIPESSA GAVI

Italy. This light, clean, crisp, dry white originates in the town of Gavi, in Piemonte. The grape in this wine is called Cortese. It's similar to a Pinot Grigio, but with a little more minerality. There is no oak aging to the wine. Enjoyable by itself or with pasta, seafood, and chicken.

DOMAINE DE LA QUILLA MUSCADET

France. Ahhhh Muscadet. What a great wine but so overlooked. Good Muscadets (such as this) are often referred to as the poor man's Chablis because it has that clean, lean, vibrant profile but without the big bucks attached to it. This Muscadet is done in the sur-lie style which means that it is aged on its lees (yeast). This adds a little roundness and softness to the wine. It is a medium bodied dry white that is awesome with seafood, but matches well with roast pork and chicken too.

CASAL GARCIA VINHO VERDE

Portugal. Literally meaning "Green Wine," this semi-dry wine is perfect for watching the ball drop. No, the wine isn't green, but the name refers to the slightly unripe grapes that are used. This gives the wine a lighter body, less alcohol, and refreshing acidity. Great with seafood or just by itself.

TOMAILO PINOT GRIGIO

Italy. It seems like everyday there is a new Pinot Grigio on the market. It is definitely one of the hottest categories right now in the wine industry. The problem is that there are a lot of weak unflattering ones out there. Tomaiolo is not one of those. This was a big surprise when I tasted it. It has body, richness and lots of flavor that is found in more expensive Pinots. Stock up on this great dollar value dry wine.
