REDS

TENUTA MONTANELLO BARBERA D'ALBA CROCETTA

Italy. Crocetta is the bigger sibling to the regular Barbera D'Alba from Tenuta Montanello. The difference between the two is that the Crocetta sees about six months of oak aging and the regular Barbera is all done in stainless steel. The Crocetta also comes from older vines. The combination of this makes the Crocetta a bigger, richer, fuller wine. Quite a bit more weight in the mouth and much deeper, darker fruit tones to it. This substantial, full bodied beauty pairs nicely with roasted meats, grilled steaks, chops and pasta with a rich sauce.

LES DARONS

France. Now here's a fun wine from the Languedoc Region in Southwest France. What is really very striking about this medium-full bodied dry red is how easy it is to drink right away. The winemaking and blend have a lot to do with it. It's a blend of 75% Grenache, 20% Syrah and a dash of Carignan to spice things up. No new oak as well. Most of the vines are over 40 years old. These older vines produce fruit that is jammy and more intense. All fine attributes for this plump little morsel, wouldn't you say?

DOMAINE DES BANQUETTES RASTEAU

France. For those of us who like full throttle reds, this Rasteau fits the bill. Rasteau is a Cru Village in the Cotes du Rhone area of the Southern Rhone Valley. Sometimes they are referred to as Baby Chateaufeu du Pape. Not a bad reference to have. I would say. This deep, dark, dense, rambunctious little fellow is a blend of Grenache, Syrah, Mourvedre and Carignan. Big wines like big food but I have it with roasted chicken and hamburgers and it goes nicely with those as well.

MATCHBOOK ARSONIST

California. Most know the Matchbook Winery from their outstanding Cabernet Sauvignon. The Arsonist is their red blend and it is a monster of a blend. This is a very full-bodied, fruit-forward, juicy dry red. Everything about this wine is big. Pick up the bottle and you will see what I mean. Plus 28 months of oak aging only adds more depth to this explosive red. Made from a blend of Petit Verdot (52%), Cabernet Sauvignon (24%) and Merlot (24%).

MOSSBACK CABERNET SAUVIGNON

California. Wow. Check out this impeccably made tasty little morsel from the Chalk Hill Appellation. This is a very impressive vine to say the least. It is a full-bodied dry red that is rich, dense and multi-layered with ripe dark fruits. It drinks exceptionally well the moment it is poured, but gets even better as it evolves in your glass. A real pleasure to drink.

750ML SANTA EMA RESERVE MERLOT

Chile. Merlot the way it should be. Full, rich, ripe and smooth! This is not your average Merlot. This dry red has all the attributes of a more expensive Merlot, but without the big price tag. Nice deep color. Excellent fruit flavors. Long smooth finish. No bitter aftertaste. Great with food and great by itself.

MAESTRO DEL POMIDORO

Italy. Now here is just a fun everyday wine that really delivers. Even the label is fun (you have to see it). This easy to consume medium-bodied dry red is made from the classic Sangiovese grape (100%). Great with pizza, pasta and burgers. But as the Maestro says, "Groovy with grilled sausage!"

CHATEAU PINCE POMEROL

France. Here is a beauty with quite a lot of pedigree. Chateau Pince is owned by Jean-Pierre Moueix. This is the same owner of the famed, incredibly rare and ultra expensive Chateau Petrus from Pomerol. The Moueix family knows what it takes to make great wine and Chateau Pince is no exception. I have had the pleasure to have this wine a couple of times and I must say it is a gorgeous textbook Pomerol. Full-bodied, lush and polished. Beautiful fruit and drinking great with eight years of age to it. Made from pretty much all Merlot, this classy dry red will go well with steaks of course, but pork roast & chicken too.

WHITES 750ML

CORTE DELLA TORRE PINOT GRIGIO

Italy. Check out this Pinot Grigio delgato from the Veneto area of Italy. It is a real well crafted, richly textured (as far as Pinot Grigios go) dry white that tastes more expensive than it is. Medium bodied and very flavorful with a nice long finish (aftertaste). Great as an aperitif or with salads, fish, chicken, etc.

TRIMBACH PINOT BLANC

France. Here's a nice little change from Pinot Grigio or any other dry white for that matter. The grape variety, Pinot Blanc, produces a wine that is medium-bodied. As with all Trimbach wines, no oak is used. It's all about the soil and the grape (Terrior) not about manipulation in the cellars. As their sign states in their tasting room: "Say no to oak, let the fruit shine through."

DOMAINE DE LA QUILLA MUSCADET

France. Ahhhh Muscadet. What a great wine but so overlooked. Good Muscadets (such as this) are often referred to as the poor man's Chablis because it has that clean, lean, vibrant profile but without the big bucks attached to it. This Muscadet is done in the sur-lie style which means that it is aged on its lees (yeast). This adds a little roundness and softness to the wine. It is a medium bodied dry white that is awesome with seafood, but matches well with roast pork and chicken too.

CAMBRIA CHARDONNAY

California. Hailing from Santa Maria Valley in the northern part of Santa Barbara, which is fantastic for growing Chardonnay. Full-bodied and dry with a fairly rich mouthfeel. The wine is oak aged which imparts a little hint of vanilla. Have it with lobster, chicken and salmon.

MOHUA SAUVIGNON BLANC

New Zealand. From the land of Kiwis comes this juicy medium-bodied dry white wine. There is no oak aging to this wine so as to keep it fresh and lively. This vibrant white has all the typical zesty citrus flavors that one expects to find with New Zealand Sauvignon Blancs along with a long full finish. Comes from the famous Marlborough area located in the northern part of the southern island. Enjoy this with seafood and pork dishes.

ANTINORI GUADO AL TASSO VERMENTINO

Italy. The Antinoris have been making wine in Tuscany for centuries. Over the course of time, they've acquired vast knowledge of the land and where various grape varieties grow best. That, combined with their acquisition of choice vineyard plots, has lead to their discovering just how wonderfully Vermentino grows in Bolgheri, the area this wine is from. All this culminates in a wine that is dry, medium-bodied, and very well rounded with a nice creamy texture to give it a lush smooth finish. Be careful though because this kind of wine goes down real fast!

LA FORCINE SAUVIGNON BLANC

France. Sourcing most of its fruit from the Loire Valley of France, this fairly full-bodied dry white sees no oak during fermentation. It is all done in stainless steel. This keeps the wine bright and lively. It has all the textbook minerality and citrus flavor that you find in good Sauvignon Blancs but it also has a nice round slightly rich mouthfeel which I find appealing. Pair this with seafood, pork and chicken as well.
