REDS 750ML

LES DARONS

France. Now here's a fun wine from the Languedoc Region in Southwest France. What is really very striking about this medium-full bodied dry red is how easy it is to drink right away. The winemaking and blend have a lot to do with it. It's a blend of 75% Grenache, 20% Syrah and a dash of Carignan to spice things up. No new oak as well. Most of the vines are over 40 years old. These older vines produce fruit that is jammy and more intense. All fine attributes for this plump little morsel, wouldn't you say?

MOSSBACK CABERNET SAUVIGNON

California. Wow. Check out this impeccably made tasty little morsel from the Chalk Hill Appellation. This is a very impressive wine to say the least. It is a full-bodied dry red that is rich, dense and multi-layered with ripe dark fruits. It drinks exceptionally well the moment it is poured, but gets even better as it evolves in your glass. A real pleasure to drink.

PRINCIPI DI BUTERA NERO D'AVOLA

Italy. This classic grape from Sicilia really shows in this full-bodied dry red. It has a deep dark color and fruit tones to match. This Southern Italian staple is mild rounded and smooth because of the low acidity and mild tannins. Enjoy it with things off the grill and roasts.

BROADBENT MALBEC

Argentina. This wine is textbook Malbec. Full-bodied, dry, good fruit and mild tannins. What is very noticeable and pleasing is the soft creamy texture that it has. Makes it very easy to drink and will be a big hit amongst red wine drinkers I am sure. Match it up with chicken, pork and beef. Fairly versatile wine.

DANTE DI FIORENZA CHIANTI

Italy. What a breath of fresh air Dante Di Fiorenza Chianti is. What I mean by this is that it is just a real solid dollar value Chianti. A very simple straight forward, drink-me-now kind of Chianti. It doesn't make you think too hard about it. It's not supposed to. It's just an everyday wine for those everyday dishes like pizza, pasta and burgers. Medium-bodied and dry with good fruit and an enjoyable finish. You can't really ask for more than that on something so modestly priced.

UNDERWOOD PINOT NOIR

Oregon. Oregon is renowned for making world class Pinot Noirs but they usually fetch a pretty penny for them. Not this one! Silky smooth body, ripe bright fruit, and low acidity make this medium bodied dry red go down real easy. It's so good that you will want to buy two at this price!

BOGLE PETITE SIRAH

California. Petite Sirah is such a wonderful grape, but, for whatever reason, is often overlooked. You can't beat it for the money when it's done right as this wine is. This full bodied dry red has mass appeal because of its aromatic bouquet and soft rich body. It's a very dark colored wine (almost purple) that will match up with full flavored dishes.

CAPARZO SANGIOVESE

Italy. Superb dollar value Tuscan Red right here. Once you try this I believe it will be a wine you will reach for time and time again. It is a medium-bodied dry red. Fresh, lively and not an oakly monster. Just good honest Sangiovese fruit coming from a great producer. Sometimes the simplest things turn out to be the best. Have it with pasta of course, but burgers, pizza, and roasted meats of all kinds as well. Except of course Piping Plover.

TRIMBACH PINOT BLANC

France. Here's a nice little change from Pinot Grigio or any other dry white for that matter. The grape variety, Pinot Blanc, produces a wine that is medium-bodied. As with all Trimbach wines, no oak is used. It's all about the soil and the grape (Terrior) not about manipulation in the cellars. As their sign states in their tasting room: "Say no to oak, let the fruit shine through."

LA FORCINE SAUVIGNON BLANC

France. Sourcing most of its fruit from the Loire Valley of France, this fairly full-bodied dry white sees no oak during fermentation. It is all done in stainless steel. This keeps the wine bright and lively. It has all the textbook minerality and citrus flavor that you find in good Sauvignon Blancs but it also has a nice round slightly rich mouthfeel which I find appealing. Pair this with seafood, pork and chicken as well.

LIVIO FELLUGA PINOT GRIGIO

Italy. What makes this Pinot Grigio so good is that all the fruit is sourced from the Collio area in Friuli. This area has excellent soil composition and the right climate (warm days, cool nights) for the Pinot Grigio grape. This Pinot is fairly full (as Pinot Grigios go) and dry with excellent fruit and a soft round finish. This is one of the few "real" Pinot Grigios.

PELLEGRINO GIBELÉ ZIBIBBO

Italy. What is this wine you may ask? Honestly a very good question. Zibibbo is the Sicilian name for the Muscat grapes. I know, not something on your radar but certainly a fun wine to try. This medium bodied modestly dry white is loaded with beautiful fruit. Wonderful aromatics in the nose and just real fresh and smooth on the palate. It's a wine that is so easy to drink, you can have it by itself but matches wonderfully with all seafood and white meat dishes.

MARTIN CÓDAX ALBARIÑO

Spain. Spain's noble white grape Albariño shows best when it is from the Rais Baixas Region. This is a medium bodied dry white that doesn't receive any oak aging. Because of this you get a more vibrant, less heavy wine. There's not only good minerality, but plenty of fruit as well. Great with seafood. Also chicken and pork.

DOMAINE DES BANQUETTES COTES DU RHONE BLANC

France. So often when we hear the name Cotes Du Rhone we think of the great red wines. But did you know they make great white wines from here as well? Maybe not so popular over here in the states but over in France it is extremely popular due to its great food pairing, quality, and dollar value. This full-bodied dry white sees no new oak. It's all about the fruit and mouthfeel here. A wine that should be served chilled but not ice cold. Too cold and you lose the beautiful mouthfeel and flavors. A blend of Grenache Blanc, Roussanne and Clairette Blanc.

INDEPENDENT PRODUCER CHARDONNAY

Washington. Clean, crisp, and inviting is what this sustainable wine is all about. Being from a cool climate and unoaked, this refreshing, dry white is very reminiscent of a French Chablis. Not heavy, more medium in body with good minerality and fruit. Extremely well put together in a cool screw cap package. Perfect wine for fish, shellfish, chicken and pork.
