UNDERWOOD PINOT NOIR

Oregon. Oregon is renowned for making world class Pinot Noirs but they usually fetch a pretty penny for them. Not this one! Silky smooth body, ripe bright fruit, and low acidity make this medium bodied dry red go down real easy. It's so good that you will want to buy two at this price!

WYATT CABERNET SAUVIGNON

California. By far, one of the best bangs for your buck California Cabs that you can buy. In my opinion, this wine over-delivers. Ripe, round, juicy, smooth, balanced and seductive. That's right, seductive. It will seduce you out of your money and leave you drooling on the floor for another bottle. You have been warned.

BROADBENT MALBEC

Argentina. This wine is textbook Malbec. Full-bodied, dry, good fruit and mild tannins. What is very noticeable and pleasing is the soft creamy texture that it has. Makes it very easy to drink and will be a big hit amongst red wine drinkers I am sure. Match it up with chicken, pork and beef. Fairly versatile wine.

SANTA EMA RESERVE MERLOT

Chile. Merlot the way it should be. Full, rich, ripe and smooth! This is not your average Merlot. This dry red has all the attributes of a more expensive Merlot, but without the big price tag. Nice deep color. Excellent fruit flavors. Long smooth finish. No bitter aftertaste. Great with food and great by itself.

MATCHBOOK ARSONIST

California. Most know the Matchbook Winery from their outstanding Cabernet Sauvignon. The Arsonist is their red blend and it is a monster of a blend. This is a very full-bodied, fruit-forward, juicy dry red. Everything about this wine is big. Pick up the bottle and you will see what I mean. Plus 28 months of oak aging only adds more depth to this explosive red. Made from a blend of Petit Verdot (52%), Cabernet Sauvignon (24%) and Merlot (24%)

JABOULET "P-45" COTES DU RHONE

France. P-45 is wine for enjoyment now. Made from a blend of Grenache and Syrah, this fairly full-bodied dry red is perfect for those quick get togethers. Good fruit and proper acidity makes this balanced red an easy match for most foods - grilled veggies, roasted chicken, pork, steaks and stews. Straight forward good juice.

FERRANDO LA TORRAZZA CANAVESE ROSSO

Italy. I was really impressed (and still am) when I tried this beautiful wine from Piedmonte. What really stood out to me was the balance between the great fruit, soft tannins and mild acidity. It gives this full-bodied dry red elegance and a soft round mouthfeel. But make no mistake. This is no weak, clunky kind of wine here. This wine has plenty of stuffing to it. It just drinks so darned good! Serve this majestic wine on the cool side--say around 60°. It really makes the wine shine even better. A blend of Nebbiolo (45%), Barbera (45%), Croatina (5%), Freisa (5%).

BARBET CHATEAU DE FLEURIE

France. It is difficult for me to convey my thoughts in such a small paragraph, but I will start by saying this: If you are not drinking Beaujolais wine (like this) you are missing out on great drinking wines! This Cru Beaujolais is from the area (town) of Fleurie. This is not the average Beaujolais that we all know. To get the higher Cru status, vineyards must adhere to stricter laws; lower yields, hand picked grapes and location; as in better soil and exposure to the sun, etc. All these things combined are what make the Cru wines stand out. Frankly put: Only the finest go in. This 100% Gamay grape wine is a medium-bodied dry red with soft tannins, succulent fruit and just sheer drinking bliss. Have it with all white meat dishes.

FRITZ DE KATZ RIESLING

Germany. Bargain hunters rejoice! Take a look at this incredibly priced Riesling from the Mosel region of Germany. It has everything you can ask for in this style of wine. Lots of great Riesling fruit, a touch of sweetness and a little bit of zippy acidity to keep it lively and balanced. This is a real easy sipper. Enjoy it by itself or with salads, seafood or spicy foods. Meow!

DOMAINE DE LA QUILLA MUSCADET

France. Ahhhh Muscadet. What a great wine but so overlooked. Good Muscadets (such as this) are often referred to as the poor man's Chablis because it has that clean, lean, vibrant profile but without the big bucks attached to it. This Muscadet is done in the sur-le style which means that it is aged on its lees (yeast). This adds a little roundness and softness to the wine. It is a medium bodied dry white that is awesome with seafood, but matches well with roast pork and chicken too.

CHATEAU MONTFORT VOUVRAY

France. This is a very easy drinking, off-dry white that matches up great with chicken, fish and spicy food. The grape variety in the wine is Chenin Blanc. You'll find a lot of fruit, but also acidity to keep it balanced and refreshing. Hooray for Vouvray.

CHATEAU CHATELIER

France. What makes this beauty stand out to me is the blend of grapes from which it is made; Semillon, Sauvignon Blanc and a splash of Muscadelle. Normally wines from here are more Sauvignon Blanc driven but with this particular wine it is more Semillon driven. The Semillon adds weight and roundness while the Sauvignon Blanc adds the citrus flavors and lively acidity. The splash of Muscadelle adds the beautiful aromatics. What you get from all of this is a delicious medium-bodied dry white that drinks like a champ.

LIVIO FELLUGA PINOT GRIGIO

Italy. What makes this Pinot Grigio so good is that all the fruit is sourced from the Collio area in Friuli. This area has excellent soil composition and the right climate (warm days, cool nights) for the Pinot Grigio grape. This Pinot is fairly full (as Pinot Grigios go) and dry with excellent fruit and a soft round finish. This is one of the few "real" Pinot Grigios.

CASAL GARCIA VINHO VERDE

Portugal. Literally meaning "Green Wine," this semi-dry wine is perfect for watching the playoffs. No, the wine isn't green, but the name refers to the slightly unripe grapes that are used. This gives the wine a lighter body, less alcohol, and refreshing acidity. Great with seafood or just by itself.

ILAURI TREBBIANO D'ABRUZZO

Italy. Made from the Trebbiano grape from the region of Abruzzo, this medium-bodied dry white delivers a real solid wine with a real solid price point. I call it a simple wine meaning that it is not too complex that you have to think about what you are drinking. It is made to consume now and enjoy as an aperitif or with roasted pork or seafood etc. Very flavorful and not aged in any oak. This keeps the wine light and lively.
