GRAN DUCA PINOT NOIR
Italy. Fun and delicious is how I can best describe this medium-bodied fruit forward dry red. It is very smooth with soft tannins and light acidity. A very well balanced wine from start to finish. Put all these things together and you have a quality product at a quality price. A very versatile wine. Pair it up with lots of different things.

HAYES VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON
California. I was pleasantly surprised when I first tasted this wine. I didn't know the price on it and when I tasted it I thought it was going to be much more. What really impressed me about it was the copious amount of quality Cabernet fruit, and the smooth soft tannins. The acidity level is low so you get this real round mouthfeel to the wine. Makes for a very enjoyable bottle. Enjoy this full-bodied dry red with friends and food.

YANGARRA SHIRAZ
Australia. What we have here is what really good Aussie Shiraz is all about. Fruit, depth, harmony and balance. The grapes for this delicious Shiraz come from the McLaren Vale area. This area is a little cooler than other areas, so the grapes ripen slower and more evenly. That's where the balance and harmony come in. The old Shiraz vines that produce the fruit is where the depth and luscious fruit flavors come from. This is really a great job here from the Yangarra Winery. Enjoy this full-bodied dry red with steaks, roasts, ribs and of course lamb.

LA FIERA MONTEPULCIANO D'ABRUZZO
Italy. Here is that down-to-earth wine driven everyday red that you have been looking for. This full-bodied dry red is the perfect pasta, pizza, burger - you name it wine. It's a mellow, soft, fruit-driven red made from the Montepulciano grape in Abruzzo. Great quality dry red at an unbeatable price!

BROADSIDE MERLOT
California. Remember the days not so long ago when Merlot was hot? I mean really hot. It sold like crazy. The reason was quite clear. The wines were great; soft and round, lush, full of fruit, and a real pleasure to drink. Then the movie Sideways came out and put Pinot Noir on the map. (I am not complaining). Merlot struggled after that. Vines were ripped up and replanted with Pinot. Winemakers who still made Merlot started changing how they made it and made them taste like Cabernet. Well Broadside Merlot brings back the old glory days of Merlot. Full, rich flavorful Merlot that is priced right. Try this single vineyard (Margarita Vineyard) Merlot from Paso Robles by itself or with roast pork, steaks, pot roast, etc.

CAPARZO SANGIOVESE

Italy. Superb dollar value Tuscan Red right here. Once you try this I believe it will be a wine you will reach for time and time again. It is a medium-bodied dry red. Fresh, lively and not an oaky monster. Just good honest Sangiovese fruit coming from a great producer. Sometimes the simplest things turn out to be the best. Have it with pasta of course, but burgers, pizza, and roasted meats of all kinds as well. Except of course Piping Plover.

BODEGAS MACAYA CONDADO DE ALMARA SELECCION
Spain. Superstar wine (that I bring in exclusively to our shoppe) from the Navarra Region located right above Rioja. This is a full-bodied luscious dry red that is packed with gorgeous fruit and flavor. It is made from 100% Tempranillo and aged for six months in American oak barrels, which gives the wine its soft tannins and long smooth finish. Hard to beat this kind of quality for the price.

TERRE DEI SANTI L'ALFIERE BARBERA D'ASTI
Italy. Another gem that I bring from this outstanding winery. They make two Barberas and this one is their flagship. It comes from very old vineyards where the vines produce very low yields. Old vines, low yields equal more intense fruit which is what you will find here. This is a full-bodied dry red that is aged for roughly 18 months in large oak casks. It is quite remarkable how much pedigree this wine has for this kind of money. Serve this beauty with grilled or roasted meats and pasta with meat sauce.

MURPHY-GOODE FUMÉ BLANC
California. Here's a nice richly textured dry white. Fairly full-bodied with the classic Sauvignon Blanc citrus flavors and aromas. A nice round and smooth satisfying sipper that will match up well with shrimp, chicken and pork dishes. Also great by itself.

TRIMBACH GEWURZTRAMINER
France. The Trimbach Family has been making wine in Alsace since 1626! Their commitment to quality is unparalleled to say the least. Almost every Michelin Three Star Restaurant in the world has Trimbach on their wine list. This is a full-bodied dry wine that is rich and pronounced. It has a wonderful spicy, fragrant nose. Great match with Asian, Indian and Cajun foods. Pork & Chicken too!

MARTIN CÓDAX ALBARIÑO

Spain. Spain's noble white grape Albariño shows best when it is from the Rais Baixas Region. This is a medium bodied dry white that doesn't receive any oak aging. Because of this you get a more vibrant, less heavy wine. There's not only good minerality, but plenty of fruit as well. Great with seafood. Also chicken and pork.

PRINCIPESSA GAVI
Italy. This light, clean, crisp, dry white originates in the town of Gavi, in Piemonte. The grape in this wine is called Cortese. It's similar to a Pinot Grigio, but with a little more minerality. There is no oak aging to the wine. Enjoyable by itself or with pasta, seafood, and chicken.

CHATEAU MONTFORT VOUVRAY
France. This is a very easy drinking, off-dry white that matches up great with chicken, fish and spicy food. The grape variety in the wine is Chenin Blanc. You'll find a lot of fruit, but also acidity to keep it balanced and refreshing. Hooray for Vouvray.

CAMBRIA BENCHBREAK CHARDONNAY
California. Hailing from Santa Maria Valley in the northern part of Santa Barbara, which is fantastic for growing Chardonnay. Full-bodied and dry with a fairly rich mouthfeel. The wine is oak aged which imparts a little hint of vanilla. Have it with lobster, chicken and salmon.

CHATEAU CHATELIER
France. What makes this beauty stand out to me is the blend of grapes from which it is made; Semillon, Sauvignon Blanc and a splash of Muscadelle. Normally wines from here are more Sauvignon Blanc driven but with this particular wine it is more Semillon driven. The Semillon adds weight and roundness while the Sauvignon Blanc adds the citrus flavors and lively acidity. The splash of Muscadelle adds the beautiful aromatics. What you get from all of this is a delicious medium-bodied dry white that drinks like a champ.
