REDS 750ML

CLOS DE LOS SIETE

Argentina. Sourced from seven different vineyards near the Andes Mountains, this full-bodied, dense, dark colored, dry red is the brainchild of famed French winemaker Michel Rolland. It is a blend of Malbec, Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. As stated, it is a big wine, but not out of balance. Enjoy this with all red meats, full flavored dishes and Neil Patrick Harris.

BARBET CHATEAU DE FLEURIE

France. It is difficult for me to convey my thoughts in such a small paragraph, but I will start by saying this: If you are not drinking Beaujolais wine (like this) you are missing out on great drinking wines! This Cru Beaujolais is from the area (town) of Fleurie. This is not the average Beaujolais that we all know. To get the higher Cru status, vineyards must adhere to stricter laws; lower yields, hand picked grapes and location; as in better soil and exposure to the sun, etc. All these things combined are what make the Cru wines stand out. Frankly put: Only the finest go in. This 100% Gamay grape wine is a medium-bodied dry red with soft tannins, succulent fruit and just sheer drinking bliss. Have it with all white meat dishes.

DANTE DI FIORENZA CHIANTI

Italy. What a breath of fresh air Dante Di Fiorenza Chianti is. What I mean by this is that it is just a real solid dollar value Chianti. A very simple straight forward, drink-me-now kind of Chianti. It doesn't make you think too hard about it. It's not supposed to. It's just an everyday wine for those everyday dishes like pizza, pasta and burgers. Medium-bodied and dry with good fruit and an enjoyable finish. You can't really ask for more than that on something so modestly priced.

CASTLE ROCK PINOT NOIR

California. Big time dollar value alert! This is a real good tasting Pinot Noir that over delivers for its price point. It is a medium-bodied, silky, smooth, dry red with a slight hint of cherry to it. A very versatile easy-drinking, crowd-pleasing wine. Match it up with anything you like.

MOCALI I PIAGGIONI ROSSO TOSCANO

Italy. This is a nice, little, unknown, smart buy that shouldn't be overlooked. Mocali is known for making some incredible Brunello Di Montalcino. Though this is not Brunello, this 100% Sangiovese from Montalcino kind of gets you there for a fraction of the price. It is a medium to full-bodied dry red. Well put together, so to speak, between the fruit, acidity and tannins. A Tuscan Red of balance. Enjoy with roasted meats and Rocky Mountain oysters.

BODEGAS MACAYA CONDADO DE ALMARA SELECCION

Spain. Superstar wine (that I bring in exclusively to our shoppe) from the Navarra Region located right above Rioja. This is a full-bodied luscious dry red that is packed with gorgeous fruit and flavor. It is made from 100% Tempranillo and aged for six months in American oak barrels, which gives the wine its soft tannins and long smooth finish. Hard to beat this kind of quality for the price.

BROADBENT MALBEC

Argentina. This wine is textbook Malbec. Full-bodied, dry, good fruit and mild tannins. What is very noticeable and pleasing is the soft creamy texture that it has. Makes it very easy to drink and will be a big hit amongst red wine drinkers I am sure. Match it up with chicken, pork and beef. Fairly versatile wine.

HAYES VALLEY CABERNET SAUVIGNON

California. I was pleasantly surprised when I first tasted this wine. I didn't know the price on it and when I tasted it I thought it was going to be much more. What really impressed me about it was the copious amount of quality Cabernet fruit, and the smooth soft tannins. The acidity level is low so you get this real round mouthfeel to the wine. Makes for a very enjoyable bottle. Enjoy this full-bodied dry red with friends and food.

TRIMBACH PINOT BLANC

France. Here's a nice little change from Pinot Grigio or any other dry white for that matter. The grape variety, Pinot Blanc, produces a wine that is medium-bodied. As with all Trimbach wines, no oak is used. It's all about the soil and the grape (Terrior) not about manipulation in the cellars. As their sign states in their tasting room: "Say no to oak, let the fruit shine through."

FRITZ DE KATZ RIESLING

Germany. Bargain hunters rejoice! Take a look at this incredibly priced Riesling from the Mosel region of Germany. It has everything you can ask for in this style of wine. Lots of great Riesling fruit, a touch of sweetness and a little bit of zippy acidity to keep it lively and balanced. This is a real easy sipper. Enjoy it by itself or with salads, seafood or spicy foods. Meow!

FESS PARKER CHARDONNAY

California. When Fess hung up his hat after playing Davy Crockett and Daniel Boone in the 50's and 60's he moved from Hollywood up to the Santa Barbara area. Here he eventually found and purchased a 700 acre ranch and built the Fess Parker Winery. This iconic winery is still family owned and operated and producing award winning wines year after year. This full-bodied fairly lush dry white sees a little bit of oak aging which imparts a nice touch of vanilla and toasty oak to the wine. That along with gorgeous Santa Barbara fruit makes for one heck of a Chardonnay at a very attractive price.

GRAN DUCA PINOT GRIGIO

Italy. Here is that everyday, delightful, charming Pinot Grigio that you have been looking for. Just real honest easy-drinking Pinot Grigio that is quite affordable and very good. Chill it. Drink it. Relax with it. Great by itself or with salads, seafood, chicken.

CONUNDRUM

California. This is a very unique and very well made off-dry white. A blend of Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Semillon, Viognier and Muscat. This interesting blend makes for a full-bodied, rich tasty treat. Great to start off with at that special gathering.

THEVENET & FILS SAINT-VERAN L'ERMITAGE SAINT CLAUDE

France. I think you will be hard pressed to find a better Saint-Veran at this price point. This wine is absolutely gorgeous. Saint-Veran is a town right next to Pouilly-Fuisse. Often overshadowed by the more famous Pouilly-Fuisse wines, Saint-Veran wines like this one in particular give Pouillys a run for their money. It's 100% Chardonnay and is full bodied with a fairly dense rich mouthfeel. The vines in this vineyard are 70 years old on average. Incredible. Such high pedigree for so few dollars.

LE MAS DES FLAUZIERES VENTOUX BLANC

France. Here is a pretty white wine that I bring in from the Cotes Du Ventoux region right next to the Southern Rhone. This great value full-bodied delicious dry white is a blend of mainly Clairette and Roussanne with a little bit of Viognier as well. There is no new oak in this wine. It is all about the fruit and rich mouthfeel here. Enjoy this smooth and substantial wine with seafood, chicken and pork.
